

Welcome Back! And Welcome to the 2018-2019 academic year! The Collegiate Division has planned a variety of events and activities! Louisiana Collegiate NAFME has a member page on Facebook and I urge music education students and NAFME Collegiate Advisors to “friend” this Facebook page to stay current with the state organization. The address is:

The NAFME Collegiate Summit
FOCUS ON TECHNOLOGY IN THE MUSIC CLASSROOM
November 17 – November 19

The NAFME Collegiate Summit is a collaborative effort among the Louisiana Music Educators Association, university faculty, K-12 music educators, and retired music teachers to focus on the needs of undergraduate music education majors and beginning music teachers. THE 2018 NAFME COLLEGIATE SUMMIT HAS A SPECIAL FOCUS ON TECHNOLOGY IN THE MUSIC CLASSROOM DURING SUNDAY’S SESSIONS. The Summit Program provides a variety of professional development sessions for college students, and beginning and veteran music teachers. Please see this Preview of the 2018 sessions open to collegiate members as well as practicing music teachers/directors at this year’s LMEA Conference.

Yearlong Student Teaching (Teaching Residency)

The Louisiana Department of Education (LDOE) has implemented yearlong student teaching during the 2018-2019 academic year. Music teacher education programs across Louisiana had to submit "Program Assurances" that LDOE standards would be employed in the preparation of pre-service music teachers in coming school year. Therefore, yearlong "Teaching Residency" will now be a requirement of university music teacher preparations programs.

Annual Music Teacher Education Breakfast

Sunday, November 18

9:00 a.m.

Music Education Faculty at colleges and universities across the state are invited to attend this informal BYO breakfast banquet and meeting as part of the LMEA Conference. This social gathering of Music Teacher Educators is an opportunity to connect with other professionals, develop collegiality, exchange ideas, share in common practices, and examine ways to enhance music teacher training programs in Louisiana.

Research Presentation Session
Sunday, November 18
10:00 a.m.

The Louisiana Music Educators Association is pleased to announce a call for research reports for presentation at a Research Poster Session at the LMEA Conference on November 18, 2018. University faculty, graduate students, and classroom music educators are invited to submit proposals for presentation during this session. Authors whose reports are selected will present their research during a research poster session in which interested music educators can learn about the research and discuss applications to music teaching and learning with the authors. Posters will be placed in room Cypress I for viewing during the conference with formal presentation by authors on November 18th at 10:00 am.

Monday, November 19th @ 8:00 am
