2021-22 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

Welcome! Thank you for participating in our LMEA Professional Development Conference. The 2021-2022 Conference is one more step in our journey to normalcy. Every reasonable precaution has been taken to make this event safe for all participants. Preparation for safety has been just one more task, layered on top of the myriad of challenges we encounter when hosting an event of this size and scope. Despite all concerns and restrictions, LMEA's bottom-line goal has never changed. We will provide our members and All-State students with a first-rate learning and performing experience. I must thank the many Board members who have found ways to keep the wheels of progress turning, at both the District and State level.

Likewise, I express my appreciation to every LMEA member, for adjusting and adapting in ways that were unimaginable a few years ago. The cooperation and sacrifices I have witnessed are nothing short of remarkable. The Conference and All-State activities are happening because of you! Without your resilience and determination, none of this would have been possible. Enjoy the camaraderie, these next few days will bring. Thank you and bless you, one and all.
