Introducing the new

LMEA PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

NEW ORLEANS, LA | HILTON RIVERSIDE | JANUARY 16-19, 2025

WE'RE MOVING!

After over 50 years in Baton Rouge, the LMEA Conference is growing into a new space! The new venue will allow Band, Choir, Orchestra, Elementary, Piano, Jazz, Guitar, Talented Music teachers, and more to meet together and collaborate under one roof for the first time.

We're adding All-State Jr. High/Middle School band, choir, orchestra, jazz ensemble, and guitar ensemble, with plans to continue to grow into the new space. We look forward to welcoming more teachers from the developmental grades, and providing world-class clinic opportunities that we currently cannot offer such as rehearsal clinics with live ensembles, reading sessions, and more!

We're not simply moving the conference. We are building a regional event from the bottom up to meet the needs of our students and teachers in a 21st century world.

FEATURED KEYNOTE SPEAKER

TIM LAUTZENHEISER

Senior VP of Education, Conn Selmer, Inc.
Motivational speaker for leadership

MORE ATTENDEES

The New LMEA Conference anticipates over 1500 attendees including students, parents, teachers, and administrators from Louisiana and across the Gulf South.

MORE EXHIBITORS

Exhibitors from across the disciplines including elementary vendors, music publishers, and more will fill an exhibit hall 50% larger than in Baton Rouge!

BETTER STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Our All-State students deserve the best experience possible and in New Orleans, they will have all their needs provided for in one facility. They'll be made to feel like the all-stars they are!

#ForeverMusic

WWW.LMEAMUSIC.ORG

On behalf of the LMEA Executive Board, I welcome you to the 2023 Louisiana Music Educators Association Professional Development Conference and All-State Activities. It is always a wonderful opportunity to learn from inspiring clinics, hear wonderful performances, and renew relationships with our fellow music educators. LMEA continues to do our best to serve you for the advancement of music education.

This weekend, you will find a wide variety of clinics available from each division. I encourage you to experience our All-State rehearsals and concerts from some of the finest student musicians in our state. We always enjoy and are elated to have our Louisiana universities perform for us. We are excited to have the combined Louisiana and Mississippi National Guard Musicians with us this weekend for a performance.

We are indebted to our collegiate and business exhibits that grace our hallways and exhibit halls each year. We are thankful you chose to be with us here this weekend to CELEBRATE MUSIC for our annual convention and hope you enjoy your stay.

Best wishes,

Brett Babineaux

Introducing

Pat Deaville utilizes two approaches to telling LMEA's nine-decade story. He begins by revealing the history through the lives and contributions of its Hall of Fame inductees. The book's second half provides a detailed record of the Board of Directors members with a plethora of news and notes from across nine decades.

JOIN THE PRIDE —

- When I was young, I took private music lessons at the Community Music School of Southeastern Louisiana University. I knew from then on that the Pottle Music Building (where lessons took place) would be a second home to me, a familiar place, a place of learning and music. Being a part of Southeastern's music department has been one of the best experiences, and it has more than prepared me for my dream career as a music teacher."

~Emily Miller, Southeastern Alumni

- When the time came for me to consider college, Southeastern Louisiana University was my top choice. I knew that this was the place where I wanted to learn from the moment I heard the Wind Symphony perform a concert at the Columbia Theater in Downtown Hammond. I was provided with so many incredible opportunities in both my undergraduate and graduate experiences.

~Lindsey Willard, Southeastern Alumni
